

Information about humanitarian projects proposed for co-financing

1. Project Name: Training class «Emergency medical care»
2. Project deadline: 2021 - 2022 years.
3. Applicant organization proposing a project: The healthcare institution «City Emergency Medical Station» of Minsk.
4. Project objectives: Improving the practical skills of emergency medical care.
5. Tasks to be performed as part of the project: development of common skills for emergency medical care at the pre-hospital stage; improving the level of practical skills of emergency medical teams during intensive care and resuscitation at the pre-hospital stage: carrying out restoration of upper respiratory tract patency, trachea intubation, artificial lung ventilation, closed heart massage, management of childbirth, providing intravenous and intraosseous access for infusion therapy, stopping bleeding; reduced mortality of patients at the pre-hospital stage in trauma, acute cardiovascular and respiratory failure.
6. Task Force: doctors, paramedics, nurses of emergency medical teams.
7. Brief description of project activities: purchase or donation of 10 sets of simulator dummies: cardiopulmonary resuscitation, intubation; repair and furnishing of premises of 10 training classes at 10 substations of emergency medical care the healthcare institution «City Emergency Medical Station»; training of specialists for training on intensive care and intensive care simulators.
8. Total funding (in United States dollars):
Financing source	Amount of funding (in United States dollars)
Donor funds	380 000,00 $
Joint financing	10 000,00 $
8. Project Location (region/district, city): Republic of Belarus, Minsk.
9. Contact person: Vorobey Oleg, deputy chief physician for organizational and methodological work, +375172436482, dr_vorobey@tut.by	